MIDLAND MUSINGS

Mr. Murphy's seventh and eighth grade classes have embarked on a quest for survival. They are working together, using resources on the Midland property, strategizing how to survive when alone and faced with the unexpected challenge of needing shelter, water, and food. This exercise was inspired by reading Gary Paulson's Hatchet, a fictional story about a young, teenage boy who is faced with these same challenges after surviving a plane crash, while on a trip to spend the summer with his father, in Canada. Ask a Midland middle school student what they've learned about spiritual survival through these exercises. "Developing passionate followers of Christ who love God and serve people." www.midlandacademy.org
